Questful RE

UNIT 3.1 KEY QUESTIONS

Your Pupils' Quest is to discover... Unit Question: What is the role of a faith leader who has been called by God?
Ask pupils these questions at the start of the unit, once at the check point during the unit and again at the conclusion. Write in a different coloured pen each time. Do this as a whole class or in small groups. Pupils' initials can be noted next to the answers they have given.		How does God speak to people?
		What is a vocation?
		What sort of tasks do people do in response to being called by God?

	Godfrey wants to ask these theological questions: • What does it mean to be called by God? • In what ways does God call people? How does God speak to people? • Who has been/or could be called by God? • What do the stories about these people teach us about God? • How do these stories help us to understand Christian beliefs about God?	What questions would you like to ask?
	Phil wants to ask these philosophical questions: • How do pupils feel when they are asked to do something important? • How do pupils feel when they are asked to do something they do not want to do?	What questions would you like to ask?
	Sally wants to ask these human social science questions: • What sort of tasks does God call people to do? • What is the role of a faith leader who has been called by God? • What are the similarities and differences between the role and daily lives of faith leaders? • What is their role in the community?	What questions would you like to ask?
